Benefits of the service
- Our service not only provides a link to the wonderful world of books but is often a relief from pain, boredom and loneliness. For many of our members who cannot hold a book, our service is a lifeline, a friend and a comfort, lifting them out of what are often challenging circumstances.
- For children, listening to stories helps improve confidence, independence and can inspire a life-long love of literature.
- Many of our educational titles are recorded in our studios and are therefore unavailable elsewhere in an audio format.
